Please provide two examples of your advocacy to protect and promote civil rights and civil liberties in Maryland. I testified multiple times in support of the Non-Discrimination Ordinance when it was being considered by the Annapolis City Council, and I recruited friends and neighbors to get involved as well. This ordinance, which passed, was designed to make Annapolis more immigrant and refugee-friendly and to fight a Trump-inspired movement to do the opposite. As a member of the Annapolis Education Commission, I have worked hard to get more resources for our public schools, to pay teachers better, reduce overcrowding, and improve safety.

Please provide two examples of what you will do if elected to protect and promote civil rights and civil liberties in Maryland. I have spent my 30-year career working to improve equity in our schools and close racial and socioeconomic achievement gaps, including at the Children's Defense Fund. There is a tremendous opportunity for progress in this area in the legislature next year - I have attended many of the hearings and meetings that are setting the stage for that and I will prioritize doing the most for the kids who have the least. I am also interested in criminal justice reform, including expanding restorative justice practices.
